Widely publicized "100% Approval Cash Advance" program spreads like wildfire among small businesses in the US, allowing businesses to receive future sales cash in advance without credit approval or even collateral. Over 8,000 US businesses have become since its launch last week, announces Merchant Cash in Advance.

The popularity of the Cash Advance campaign has grown exponentially in less than 10 days, and it isn't hard to see why. It guarantees the approval of any business who has been in business for 6 months or more, without a credit check or collateral. Unique to every other previous cash advance program we've seen prior to this, this particular cash advance service allows any business to pay the loan amount back to its provider over the course of 12 months.

"There have always been various Merchant Cash Advance programs, but typical merchant cash advance models simply set the majority of businesses up for failure. The idea behind a cash advance is to ultimately keep businesses alive while allowing healthy growth... most merchant cash advance companies have seemed to forget this. This is why we allow a 12 month pay back option, without merchant processing restrictions or changes," stated Mark Quinones, founder of MerchantCashinAdvance.

Nearly every Merchant Cash Advance company besides MerchantCashinAdvance (in the US) is set to only an 11 week payback period, taking nearly 45% of all earnings until the cash advance is paid in full. This recipe for destroying business is all the more reason why this new Cash Advance Program has exploded in popularity across the US.
