Numerous factoring options for businesses have been around for decades, however Merchant Cash in Advance recently launched a new Merchant Factoring Loan Program that is remarkably unique to those of the past, reports Merchant Cash in Advance.

For starters, this particular Merchant Factoring Program allows any small business owner in America a guaranteed approval without a credit check or a collateral. It bases the loan amount solely on the business on the business's performance over the course of 4 months. But the program has received an enormous response from business owners because of its method of payback.

The Merchant Factoring option gives each business owner the option to pay back the business loan amount in either 8 months, 12 months, or 18 months regardless of he applicant credit history. The only requirement of the business is to be in business for 6 months or more, which explains its growth in popularity this year.

Leniency on the length of the pay back period makes this program different than any other unsecured business loan seen in the past. The program launched August 1st of 2011, and has already funded over 6 million dollars to small businesses in a few days.
